Agreed and did send Steve a quick note last night explaining I was sure he had a final. He said Hays would send it today.

Hey Joni,

Thanks. I think we should wait for Steve to return. We'll see what he has. I'm starting to feel like they are looking for a head to put on a platter. Hopefully, it'll pass. We can do an after action report and evaluate what could have been done different. We don't do it during the emergency.

The 'draft' work plan that was sent earlier is the only version that we have. If a response was given it was not received.

- HASP
- Any sub work plans or engineering specs

Approved copies are preferred if possible. Thank you in advance.
